

Sun, 16 Mar-14; Mid Day - Mumbai; Size : 30 sq.cm.; Page : 14

India a liver transplant hub?

NOIDA: India is emerging as a global hub for liver transplant with expanded medical facilities, an expert said on Friday. "Around 50-60 percent of live transplant patients are from other countries," said Vivek Vij, director, Liver Transplant Programme in Fortis Hospital. "This is because of the poor medical facilities in countries like Pakistan, Nepal, Cambodia and other African nations," he added.