Kalyan, February 11, 2016: In its endeavour to save and enrich lives, Fortis Hospital, Kalyan joined hands with Kalyan Dombivli Municipal Corporation (KDMC) to screen over 2000 employees, helping them have a better understanding of their health index. The first phase of the screening camp was conducted today where KDMC employees from across seven wards and the head office came together to undergo medical checkup. The event was supported by Mr. E. Ravendiran (IAS), Commissioner, KDMC, Mr. Rajendra Devlekar Mayor, KDMC and Dr. Smita Rode, Chief Medical Officer, KDMC, The screening camp was headed by the Medical Superintendent from Fortis Hospital, Kalyan.

KDMC employees interacted with the Physicians where they raised queries about health and wellness. Mr. Ravendiran said “We are happy to initiate this health check-up camp for our employees. It is imperative for us to be in good physical and emotional health, so we can serve the citizen’s better. We appreciate Fortis Hospital’s effort to check the health of our employees. I am sure our employees will find it helpful and useful..”

Dr Sameer Kulkarni, Facility Director, Fortis Hospital, Kalyan, said: “We are thankful to our Municipal Corporation who has a critical role to play in the overall well-being of the citizens. We are proud to participate in this health camp which will help them remain in good health. This will help them take progressive steps towards health and wellness.”.

In the following months, more such screening camps will be conducted to cover over 2,500 KDMC employees under the stewardship of Hon E. Ravendiran (IAS), Commissioner, KDMC.
